

“

I have one of the original 20m-6m 3 Element SteppIR Yagi. I lived in North Alberta, Canada for 6 years where the temperature would drop in the winter to -50c and +30 in the summer, the antenna worked every time. The last three years the antenna has been installed in Newfoundland, Canada where the weather is wet, snowy, ice storms and very windy, again the antenna works fine.

”